MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

This announcement is made by the Company pursuant to Rule 13.09(2)(a) of the Listing Rules and the Inside Information Provisions under Part XIVA of the SFO.

The Board is pleased to announce that on 23 February 2016 (after trading hours), the Company and the Target Company entered into the MOU, pursuant to which the Company proposes to contribute new registered capital into the Target Company. Upon completion of the capital injection, the Company intends to hold not more than 15% equity interest in the Target Company based on the valuation of the latter of not more than HK$2 billion.

Date: 23 February 2016 (after trading hours)

Parties: (i) the Company

(ii) the Target Company

To the best of the knowledge, information and belief of the Directors having made all reasonable enquiries, the Target Company and its ultimate beneficial owner(s) are third parties independent of the Company and its connected person(s) (as defined in the Listing Rules).

The Target Company is a limited liability company established in the PRC and is principally engaged in the provision of customised and integrated financial consultancy services. Headquartered and having more than 20 branches in Shanghai, the Target Company has a strong and stable presence in nearly 30 cities across the PRC and employs more than 2,200 employees in the country.

Without the prior written consent of the Company, the preliminarily intended use of proceeds from the Proposed Capital Injection is to be applied for the expansion of offline sales and marketing network, development and extension of product portfolio and working capital of the Target Company.

Expiry

The MOU will expire at the earliest of:

- (i) the entering of the Formal Agreement between the Company or its wholly-owned subsidiary and the Target Company;
- (ii) termination by any party to the MOU with one-month written notice in advance to the other; or
- (iii) six months after the date of the MOU.

Exclusivity

The Target Company undertakes that the Company shall have the exclusive rights for the Proposed Capital Injection within 6 months from the date of the MOU. Therefore, without the prior written consent from the Company, the Target Company shall not, and procure not to, negotiate with any third parties other than the Company in relation to the Proposed Capital Injection and the transactions contemplated under the MOU with similar effects during the above period.

Binding effect

Save and except for provisions relating to confidentiality and exclusivity, the MOU is not legally binding. If the Proposed Capital Injection materialises, it will constitute a notifiable transaction for the Company under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules and the Company will comply with the relevant requirements under the Listing Rules as and when necessary.

REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE MOU

The Group is principally engaged in the businesses of cultural media, advertising media and film media in the PRC. The slowdown in the economic growth of the PRC and the increasing pressure on certain industries to expand have impacted the advertising spending of the respective industries, thereby posing challenges for the traditional media business of the Group. In the opinion of the Group, the Chinese film media industry, where the Group enters, is in the middle of a spectacular growth and the related business integrates smoothly with the Group's long-established channels for traditional media. The Group is actively exploring opportunities in the film media industry in order to enrich its business mix. The Directors consider that the Proposed Capital Injection will be beneficial to the Group from the following perspectives:

1. as an innovative service provider in integrated financial services, the Target Company proposes the idea of “Internet + film and television + finance”, which turns some of its financial products into a form of consumer product for film distribution by incorporating the function of film ticket redemption with investment. The Proposed Capital Injection may facilitate future co-operation between the Group and the Target Company and, hence, give rise to the Group’s potential expansion into the film distribution business;
2. the Target Company is booming in the integrated financial service industry and its sales network, assets and profit are growing rapidly in the past two years since its establishment. The customer loyalty generated from its strong network will be a potential advantage to the Group’s future revenue from film media projects; and
3. the Proposed Capital Injection will provide synergy for the Group and the Target Company and is conducive to enriching the Group’s business mix, product mix and revenue stream and strengthening the Group’s competitiveness and market image.

The MOU is subject to, among others, the entering into of the Formal Agreement and the fulfilment of any conditions precedent (pending negotiation) contained therein. As such, the Proposed Capital Injection may or may not proceed. Shareholders and potential investors are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the Shares.
